

Larry Jones-Esan is the VP Academic Development University of Entrepreneurship (Virtual), President and the Director of Studies of the London Academy Business School with branches in Dubai, Nigeria and UK. He is an entrepreneur, a business consultant, Information Technology Professional, a Certified IT Trainer and a seasoned practitioner. He has been involved in organising trade missions promoting British Education around the world including India, Pakistan, Nepal, Ghana, Cameroon, Hong Kong, Thailand, Dubai, Abu Dhabi in the Middle East and Nigeria in west Africa and organized training programmes in Banking & Finance, Leadership, Project Management and other exotic products such as Financial Derivatives, Consolidated Supervision, Risk Base Supervision, Microfinance, Bank Note and Currency Management, Resident Banking Supervision for (FIRS), (NNPC), Ministry of Health, Ministry of Finance, Commercial Banks and Central Banks respectively and have champion poverty reduction in developing countries and Graduate Job Ready program in UK, Ghana, Uganda and Nigeria. He champion British Council youth employment project with Japanese authority.

More than 18 years he owned businesses after living high profile positions including Heart FM Radio 106.2. He is an Educationist, IT Consultant and Network Server Farm Expert. He is also a chairperson for the London School of Leadership, Miller Consulting and The LABS Consulting and a Corporate Business Consultant.

Book:

Managing your Boss in a Culturally Diverse Economies; Learn to Lead From Bottom-Up (TBP)

Journals:

Larry Jones-Esan has written articles including; Private Partnership in Funding University Education, Emotional Literacy in Education and Adulthood, Support for Overseas Student in the UK (SOS), Global Imperative of University Governance, Breaking the Chain of Dependency Syndrome and delivered convocation lectures in few universities. He has appeared on TV/Radio show and interviews including BBC UK, CNBC New York, MBC Mauritius. LTV Ikeja, Channels TV, Ben TV and NTA Nigeria to mentioned a few.

Education:

He holds a Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) and he is completing Doctor of Philosophy degree in International Business Management (PhD),

Master of Education (PGC/M.Ed). Postgraduate degrees in Educational Leadership and Management (PGD), and Postgraduate in Information Technology PGDIT from Royal Melbourne Information Technology in Melbourne, Australia, International School Management New York and Postgraduate Diploma in Management Studies UK (PGD). BSc (Hons) Hospitality Management. South Bank University London He is a Chartered member and fellow of professional bodies including British Computer Society (CITP – BCS), Institute of Health Management (MIHM), Institute of Leadership Management (FinstLM), Member of London Chamber of Commerce and Industries, Institute of Analyst and Programmer (MIAP), Membership of Entrepreneurship Institute of Canada (MEIC), and Member of American Management Association (MAMA) and Fellow of Chartered Management Institute UK (FCMI).

See more at: <http://labs.org.uk/staffs/larry-jones-esan/#sthash.ihtIIVJq.dpuf>